“Rylan, now known as Kelly, has been the perfect dog. She came home at about 2:30 and was very well behaved during a meeting with members of our church at 4:30 p.m., sitting thru it all making herself comfortable on one of the couches downstairs with her head against one of the visitors. At 6:30 we took her with us to a dinner out on the deck of our friends. She sat on the deck all evening and watched the boats go by.”

Zoe (photo above) Her adopters report: “We are going to go to a 6 week obedience class beginning July 27th, She's sooo dang smart, I'm sure she will be the star of the class :) “

A young Foxhound mix puppy, Yuri came to the Adoption Center in March. He found his forever home through a rescue group that works with the Humane Society.

Rocky and Jake

Photos at right: Rocky and Jake were brought to us when they were only 2 weeks old because their mama was not feeding them. Sandi and Hayley Dillon took them home and bottle fed them. Another foster dog in the home, Sugar, took over the mothering responsibilities even though it had been a year since Sugar had puppies. Sugar, Rocky, and Jake all have been adopted. Great job Sandi, Hayley and Sugar!

Dumpling (above photo) was found in a ditch by a school. She seemed to be paralyzed but with veterinary care and love from her foster mom Shan Sirry, she has recovered and is doing very well.

Leah

Leah, a young Doberman mix, was a stray found on the Penhook side of the lake. She was very thin but began to put on weight while at the Adoption Center.

She was transferred to a Humane Society in New Hampshire where she found her new home. In the photo at left, she is enjoying her new fenced yard. She has been renamed Coral.
